

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY
HOSPITALS NHS TRUST ('CUH') - OCCUPATIONAL THERAPISTS

Cpl Healthcare and Chesham in partnership with Cambridge University Hospitals NHS Trust are seeking to recruit a number of Band 5 and Band 6 Occupational Therapists for a number of roles across the trust's Occupational Therapy service.

These positions are approved for filling by the Department of Migrant Workers and are open for immediate applications.

These are excellent permanent opportunities with the opportunity to rotate across various speciality areas within the department as well as an excellent induction program including a dedicated mentor. The Occupational Therapy department provides the highest standard of professional care to individuals who require occupational therapy either as an inpatient or outpatient.

The department is large and vibrant with staff working in 11 clinical teams consisting of Medicine for the Elderly, Acute Care Hub, Hand Therapy, Major Trauma, Medicine, Neurosciences, Orthopaedics, Peri-operative Review Informing Management of Elderly (PRIME), Rheumatology and Pain, Surgery/Oncology, Stroke and Rehabilitation.

Each team is led by an advanced Occupational Therapist.

MANDATORY APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS:

- Must be a graduate from a four-year Bachelor of Science in Occupational Therapy course from a leading recognized University.
- Must possess a Professional Regulations Commission license to practice as an Occupational Therapist.
- Current or recent post qualification in an acute hospital is desirable, but placement experience will also be considered.
- A minimum of 2 years post-qualification experience is required in an acute hospital setting in order to be considered for a band 6 role.
- Registration with or in process of registering with the Health & Care Professions Council (HCPC) in the UK is required.
- An excellent level of English competency is required.

ON OFFER:

The posts offer international sponsorship and an excellent on-boarding package including flights, accommodation and relocation expenses
